Nada Debs

This designer's lighthearted Floating stool makes a clear statement, suspending cushions in boxy acrylic frames. Cubes are 13¾ inches square by 18 inches high; cushions can be specified in three sizes and in leather, brocade, or a variety of bold fabrics. P.O. Box 13-6488, Beirut, Lebanon; 96-11-868605; nadadebs.com. circle 338

Artifort

Just a little Dr. Evil, Patrick Norguet's mod Boson chair celebrates synthetics. The shapely shell also balances visual substance with virtual weightlessness. Cushions can be upholstered in a range of fabrics from seven manufacturers. P.O. Box 115, 5480 AC Schijndel, Netherlands; 31-73-54-77-015; artifort.com. circle 334

Poltrona Frau

Avoid the Goldilocks syndrome with the Size lounger: Available in three dimensions, it's sure to fit just right. Measurements range from 31 to 38 inches wide and 36½ to 41 inches high. Beech legs come in natural or black-lacquer finishes, leather in over 90 standard colors. 145 Wooster Street, New York, NY 10012; 212-777-7592; poltronafrau.it. circle 335

Frederic Williams

A generous 51 inches deep, Maarten Kusters's low-slung Elle bridges the overlooked gap between chaises and rocking chairs. Shape-retaining cold-processed polyurethane foam and a removable cover in leather or custom fabrics keep this seat in top form. 200 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10016; 212-686-6390; fredericwilliams.com. circle 336

Alea

Don't be duped by the sexy, hard-edged Italian styling—the Zefiro bench is extremely comfortable. An anodized-aluminum frame supports an acrylic seat offered in seven colors. 1912 NW 84th Avenue, Miami, FL 33126; 305-470-1200; aleaoffice.com. circle 337
